

Alcohol Server/Seller Training

The Responsible Beverage Server/Seller (RBS) training is a state-certified program for all employees, managers & owners of establishments holding a liquor license.

Training Includes:

- Fake ID detection & carding practices
- Adhering to Maine State Liquor Laws
- Identifying minors & intoxicated persons
 - The Maine Liquor Liability Act
- Continuous employee education resources
 - Underage drinking prevention
- The importance of clear policies & teamwork
- Interventions to prevent intoxicated patrons from driving

Attendees will receive a certificate valid for 3 years

To schedule a training contact:

Katelyn Malloy

373-6926

kmalloy@midcoasthealth.com

$10 per person

RBS trainings are held locally & hosted by Access Health, in conjunction with local Law Enforcement.

Class size is limited

Registration is required

Checks made payable to:

Mid Coast Hospital

Photo ID required at event

Access Health is a community coalition working to encourage healthy choices and prevent underage substance use in Sagadahoc County, Brunswick and Harpswell.